

GRANT TEBEAU

650 Columbus Avenue, Boston, MA 02118 | 314-403-4811 | Available January – June 2021
grant_tebEAU@yahoo.com | github.com/granttebeau | www.granttebeau.me

Summary

I'm a bold, innovative, and hard-working Computer Science student at Northeastern University. A natural problem-solver and passionate about technology, I can often be found at my computer, building web applications or messing around with whatever technology grabs my interest at the time. I'm an efficient communicator, a quick learner, and am always up for whatever challenge comes my way.

Education

Northeastern University

Khoury College of Computer Sciences – Fall 2019 - Present

- Computer Science, BSCS | Entrepreneurship, Criminal Justice Minors | 3.9/4.0 GPA | Dean's List Fall 2019, Spring 2020 | Director of Engage, Entrepreneurs Club
- Relevant courses: Fundamentals of Computer Science I & II, Discrete Structures, Object-Oriented Design (Fall 2020), Computer Systems (Fall 2020), The Web Developer's Bootcamp (on Udemy)

Tech Skillset

Languages/Frameworks (Proficient): JavaScript, Node.js, React, Golang, Java, HTML/CSS

Languages/Frameworks (Familiar): Angular, Express, MongoDB, Python

Other: Docker, Kubernetes, Cypress, Git, Jira, Agile, REST APIs, writing clean code

Experience

Software Engineering/Application Development Intern – Centene Corporation (Fortune #42)

May 2020 – August 2020 | Part-time employee August 2020 – present

- Update and maintain Centene's 'Member Dashboard', an outward facing Angular application that displays a member's information to their respective Care Provider
- Write extensive End to End tests using Cypress, a JavaScript testing framework
- Utilize Golang to add multiple API wrapper endpoints onto the "Centene Health Platform"
- Deploy changes made to the cloud using Docker and Kubernetes

Freelance Web Developer– Self-Employed

April 2020– Present

- Build modern, outward-facing web applications for clients
- See granttebeau.me for more details about my work

Personal Projects

Melody – May 2020, currently in development

- A music-based social media web app developed with Node, Express, Mongo, and the Spotify API
- Enables users to share their favorite songs and artists with friends

Plantain Republic – June 2020, currently in development

- A React blog that creates awareness of social issues- built as part of buildforblacklives.com

Personal Website – April 2020

- Designed my personal website with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript: www.granttebeau.me

Activities/Hobbies

- Northeastern's Entrepreneurs Club – Director of Engage, a bi-weekly workshop program designed to bring multi-disciplinary skills to Northeastern's budding innovators
- Interests: reading non-fiction, running half marathons, social/racial advocacy, ultimate frisbee